

Dr. Ahmed Elshazly

The Director of the Office of Sponsored Programs and Centers at Heliopolis University for Sustainable Development, and Associate Professor of Marine Geology, Oceanography Department, Alexandria University. He has his PhD in 2016 in a joint supervision program between Alexandria University, Egypt and University of Sassari, Italy. Ahmed is a Certified Trainer, AT level, from the International Board of Certified Trainers (IBCT). Ahmed is a coordinator of several research and capacity building projects funded by national and international funding bodies. He was the national representative of Egypt in the 1st Global Planning Meeting for the UN Decade of Ocean Sciences for Sustainable Development. He is a member of the Jean Monnet Center of Excellence on Sustainable Blue Economy. Ahmed has several publications in the fields of Marine Science, Climate Change, Marine Management, Blue Growth, and more. He is Ocean Ambassador of International Ocean Institute (IOI, Malta). He had a position of a Visiting Professor in Bologna University (UNIBO), Italy in 2017, and currently he is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Science and Technology at Zewail City. He has attended many trainings and workshops and conducted several mobilities for teaching and training in the Euro-Mediterranean Universities.